

Calling All Characters!

Registration Form

Age Minimum: 6th Grade

 Durant Road Musical Theatre is excited to offer this one day workshop on character animation and performance development with teaching artist Steven C. Smith from Disney.

Many are surprised to learn that Disney is one of the largest live entertainment companies in the world. They produce thousands of special events and entertain millions of guests every year in their international Theme Parks & Resorts. With such a huge scope of entertainment, there are countless ways for performers of all kinds to share their talent. From professional musical theater actors looking for their next adventure, to aspiring performers looking for a place to hone their talent and learn the business.

If you consider yourself a beginner to the world of professional auditions, or someone who just loves to bring characters to life...then this workshop is for you!

Throughout the workshop we will focus on physical character development, improvisation, audition presentation skills, as well as Disney audition tips and techniques.

Performers should arrive in comfortable clothing and appropriate footwear, as they will learn a small movement combination.

To secure your spot, please complete and return the bottom section with your tuition payment.
